

LOUIS M. BROWN INTERNATIONAL CLIENT COUNSELING COMPETITION

JUDGE'S SCORE SHEET

Judge: _____

Room: _____

Date: _____

Problem (Round): _____

Each judge scores the teams independently. There cannot be a tie for first place.

Following discussion by the judges among themselves and possible consultation with the client, each judge, judging independently, must give one (1) point to the one team that in his or her opinion performed the best in light of the Assessment Criteria. Then, based on the relative performance of each team, each judge should give 2 or 3 point(s) to the other team(s). Judges may not award half points. There may be ties between teams other than the one receiving the requisite one (1) point.
