

Hochelaga Lectures 2009

Reciprocity in Contract

The Hochelaga Lectures were established in 1999 in memory of the benefactor's deceased father. Hochelaga was an Iroquois village in what is now Montreal. It was also the name which the deceased used for his company.

The initial intention was for the lecture series to reflect the deceased's commercial background as well as his fondness (albeit as an immigrant) for North American and Québécois life and history. It was thus hoped to invite prominent jurists to the University of Hong Kong to lecture and deliver seminars on these areas and other topics of pressing concern to the Hong Kong community at any given time.
