Informal lunchtime talks by
Human Rights academics, practitioners, and students

Wednesday, 30 January 2008
1:00-2:00 p.m.
Room 425, 4/F KK Leung Building, HKU

Series: Conversations with
Human Rights Practitioners

Law Yuk Kai
Director, Hong Kong Human Rights Monitor

Mr. Law Yuk Kai was the first director of the Hong Kong Human Rights Monitor since 1995. In this talk he is going to give an informal retrospective of the work of Human Rights Monitor. Mr. Law will talk about the history of Hong Kong Human Rights Monitor, the nature and priority of its work, and its relation with the UN, the Government, NGOs and other activists, in the delicate one-country-two-systems political landscape of Hong Kong.

ALL ARE WELCOME!
