The Centre for Comparative and Public Law Rights Talk Series and The Centre for Chinese Law are pleased to present a public lecture by

MR. DAN ZHOU

Shanghai-based lawyer and leading activist for gay rights in China

The Emerging Gay Rights Activism in Mainland China

Dan Zhou is a leading voice for gay rights in mainland China. Writing with his real name about being gay on Chinese websites for years, he came out to a local newspaper about his gay identity in November 2003. Since then, his name has been from time to time mentioned in Chinese newspapers, magazines and television programs. He also fights for rights of people living with or affected by HIV/AIDS in China, by advocating a human-rights-based approach to the epidemic and was profiled in the June 27, 2005 issue of TIME magazine.
