

CONFERENCE

Recognition and the Politics of Identity and Inclusion in the 21st Century: Managing Diversity in Plural Societies

Keynote Speech:

Ms. Gay J. McDougall

United Nations Independent Expert on Minority Issues

The Right to Be Me: Equality Wars on the Ground

Panel Topics:

- Religion and the State: Fissured Discourses on Secularism, Accommodation and Tolerance
- Inclusion and Recognition: A Rights-Oriented Approach
- Legal Pluralism and Cultural Diversity
- Unraveling Prejudice: The Rights of Immigrants, Migrants and Refugees
- Economic, Social and Cultural Rights: Addressing Marginalisation and Inequality
- Diversity and Inclusion in Education
- National, Multiple and Fluid Identities: The New Politics of Identity and Recognition
- Citizenship and Belonging in Diverse Societies
- Investing in the Future: Towards Inclusive Societies

For the full conference programme, please visit: http://www.law.hku.hk/diversity/?page_id=17.

Thursday, 28 April 2011, 8:15 am - 6:30 pm

Friday, 29 April 2011, 9:00 am - 6:15 pm

Rayson Huang Theatre, The University of Hong Kong

This conference seeks to explore the changing dimensions of the politics of identity and inclusion and their implications for governance and the protection of minority communities in plural societies. The conference is part of the University of Hong Kong's Emerging Strategic Research Theme on Diversity Studies.

Please register online at www.law.hku.hk/diversity/ to reserve a place.

For further information, please email Claire Hussin at diversity.hku@gmail.com.