"There can hardly exist a body of men permanently united by any common interest that will not make for itself a court of justice if it be left for a few years to its own devices."

Pollock and Maitland History of English Law 667 (2d ed. 1898).
22. The following courts shall have exclusive jurisdiction, regardless of domicile:

(4) in proceedings concerned with the registration or validity of patents, trade marks, designs, or other similar rights required to be deposited or registered, the courts of the Member State in which the deposit or registration has been applied for, has taken place or is under the terms of a Community instrument or an international convention deemed to have taken place.

Article V of the New York Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Arbitral Awards

Article V. 2. Recognition and enforcement of an arbitral award may also be refused if the competent authority in the country where recognition and enforcement is sought finds that:

(a) The subject matter of the difference is not capable of settlement by arbitration under the law of that country; or

(b) The recognition or enforcement of the award would be contrary to the public policy of that country.

“... the good citizens who may have difficulties among themselves will settle them like brothers by referring to the arbitration of some old man or the mayor of the commune. As for those who are troublesome, obstinate or quarrelsome, let them be ruined in the law courts: that is the justice that is due to them.”

Emperor Kangxi,
(Emperor of China from 1662 until 1722.)
