

SEMINAR

Panel Discussion on
Hong Kong Basic
Law and Civil Nomination

Wednesday, 9 April 2014, 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm
Academic Conference Room,
2/F Cheng Yu Tung Tower
The University of Hong Kong

In light of the current heated discussions on civil nominations and requirements of Hong Kong's Basic Law pertaining to the upcoming electoral law reform exercise for the election of the next Chief Executive of the HKSAR in 2017, this Panel Discussion will serve as an impartial and organised platform for leading figures who have expressed views on this topic to explain their interpretations. We aim to fully manifest the spirit of rational discourse, which the CCPL is committed to enhancing at this crucial stage of Hong Kong's constitutional development. The panelists who will be presenting are:

Hon. Secretary for Justice, Mr. Rimsky Yuen, SC
Hon. Priscilla Leung Mei-fun
Ms. Audrey Eu, SC
Professor Benny Tai, HKU

These seminars will be open to current staff and students of the University although they will require registration by email (RSVP joycef@hku.hk) to facilitate planning at the venue.

The panel discussion will be conducted in Cantonese.

REGISTER

PLEASE EMAIL JOYCE FUNG AT JOYCEF@HKU.HK
TO RESERVE A PLACE.