

The Centre for Comparative and Public Law Faculty of Law, The University of Hong Kong

Seminar

Korean Judiciary – Role and Challenges in Democratization and Rule of Law

Judge Kim Ye Young

Seoul Central District Court

**&

Judge Oh Seok Hoon

Seoul Central District Court

Wednesday, 3 June 2009

1:00 - 2:00 pm

Room 303, 3/F KK Leung Building, HKU

*****

South Korea is considered to have achieved rapid democratization and rule of law, but Korean democracy and rule of law is still an arena of tensions and contradictions. We, as Korean judges, would like to provide an overview of the Korean judiciary and discuss its role and challenges in the establishment of democracy and rule of law.

Both speakers are currently CCPL Visiting Fellows.

*****

ALL ARE WELCOME!

Please register on-line via www.hku.hk/ccpl/ or email Flora Leung at fkleung@hku.hk to reserve a place.