Secondary Creation - Issues in Copyright and Related Rights

Ms Winnie Tam, SC

Artistic or satirical works involving “secondary creation” (modification of existing copyright works) have become prevalent on the Internet in recent years.

In this talk, Ms Tam, SC will share her views on the legal issues that may be involved in secondary creation. She will also discuss and comment on views opposing to the Copyright (Amendment) Bill 2011, which is pending the resumption of Second Reading at the Legislative Council.

About the speaker

Ms Winnie Tam, SC (LLB 1983, PCLL 1984) was called to the Bar in Hong Kong in 1984, and to the Inner Bar in 2006. She has vast experience in a wide spectrum of intellectual property disputes representing governments and multi-national conglomerates, and has involved in several landmark cases in intellectual property in Hong Kong. She has served as a Deputy High Court Judge, and is now the Vice-Chairman of the Hong Kong Bar Association.
