

WHY HKU LAW PhD?

The Faculty of Law provides state-of-the-art training in doctrinal analysis, common law case analysis, law and economics, law and society, qualitative and quantitative methods and big data analysis inter alia. We have first-class supervisors with a rich diversity of international experience.

Our PhD graduates have taken up tenure-track positions in Oxford University, Durham University, Australian National University, University of New South Wales, Peking University, Fudan University, New York University (Shanghai), The University of Hong Kong, The Chinese University of Hong Kong and City University of Hong Kong etc.

We offer a generous scholarship package to our PhD admits. All PhD admits will receive four-year full scholarships which can cover the costs of tuition fees and living expenses. Outstanding applicants may be awarded the Hong Kong PhD Fellowship (HKPF) or the HKU Presidential PhD Scholarship with an amount of around HK$400,000 per year. Other admits will receive a stipend of HK$210,000 per year.

If you have a law degree and are ambitious to become an academic leader, we look forward to your application!
