REGULATIONS FOR THE MASTER OF COMMON LAW (MCL)

(See also General Regulations)

These regulations apply to students admitted to the MCL curriculum in the academic year 2014-15 and thereafter.

Admission requirements

LL59 To be eligible for admission to the courses leading to the Master of Common Law, a candidate shall

- (a) comply with the General Regulations; and
- (b)
 - (i) hold a degree of Bachelor of Laws with at least second class honours or an equivalent qualification in a non-common law jurisdiction; or
 - (ii) have been admitted to the professional practice of law in a non-common law jurisdiction.

A candidate for admission shall, if required, produce evidence of sufficient academic attainment, and shall satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination if such an examination is required. A candidate who fails to meet the requirements of (b) above may, in exceptional circumstances, be admitted provided that the Faculty Higher Degrees Committee is satisfied that by reason of his or her background, experience and professional qualifications, if any, the candidate is fit to follow the courses, and the candidate satisfies the examiners in a qualifying examination.

Qualifying examination

- LL60
- (a) A qualifying examination may be set to test the candidate's formal academic ability or his or her ability to follow the courses of study prescribed. It shall consist of one or more examination papers or a research paper.
 - (b) A candidate who is required to satisfy the examiners in a qualifying examination shall not be permitted to register until he or she has satisfied the examiners in the examination.

Award of degree

- LL61 To be eligible for the award of the Master of Common Law, a candidate shall
- (a) comply with the General Regulations; and
 - (b) complete the curriculum and satisfy the examiners in accordance with the regulations set out below.

Curriculum

- LL62 The curriculum for the Master of Common Law shall normally extend over one year of full-time study. To complete the curriculum, a candidate shall
- (a) follow instruction and attend classes as required, and complete all coursework required;
 - (b) satisfy the examiners in each of a total number of courses amounting to at least 48 credits in value and selected (with the approval of the Programme Director) from the courses listed in the course syllabuses below, which shall include at least 30 credits of courses designated below as "common law subjects".

Examinations

LL63 Any candidate who has failed to pass a course or courses in the manner provided for in these Regulations may be permitted

- (a) to sit a supplementary examination; or
- (b) to repeat the course or courses by following the course of instruction at the next available opportunity and taking the prescribed examination, or by taking the prescribed examination without following the course of instruction; or
- (c) to undertake the study of any alternative course or courses at the next available opportunity which enable completion of the curriculum.

LL64 A candidate who has failed to pass a course or courses shall be recommended for the discontinuation of study under General Regulation G12 if not permitted to attend for examination at some other time or to sit a supplementary examination or to repeat the course or courses or to undertake the study of another course or courses which enable completion of the curriculum.

LL65 A candidate who is unable through illness or other acceptable reason to attend for examination may apply for permission to attend for examination at some other time.

Examination results

LL66 At the conclusion of the examinations, a pass list shall be published in alphabetical order. A candidate who has shown exceptional merit may be awarded a mark of distinction, and this mark shall be recorded in the candidate's degree diploma.
