Biological Sciences (but not Human Science courses), Computer Science	£24922	£23820	£42643	£63,397

2. The Programme fees include:
 - a) Tuition fees and college charges. This covers provision of University Card, tutorial arrangements, teaching costs, attendance at University lectures and departmental seminars, access to college, faculty and Bodleian libraries, membership of the JCR and MCR, access to College sports facilities clubs and societies, University sports facilities, clubs and societies, computing facilities and provision of transcripts.
 - b) Accommodation in a furnished single study bedroom including bedding and facilities for the duration of the programme. Visiting students attending for the full academic year or for two consecutive terms do not need to vacate their rooms in the vacation or pay vacation rent if they choose to remain in Oxford over the vacation.
 - c) Meals taken in Hertford College dining hall are paid for on a "pay as you go" basis and the amount of each meal is deducted from the student's meal plan allowance, which is on UPay. Once, and if, the allowance is used up students can pay for additional meals by topping up their UPay account. There is no rebate if the meal allowance has not been used at the end of each term. The meal plan covers one main meal per day during the week and brunch at the weekend. Money on the plan can be put toward a couple of formal meals per term or used in the café or bar as well.
